

KÄTE HAMBURGER CENTRE
FOR APOCALYPTIC AND
POST-APOCALYPTIC STUDIES

UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386

CAPAS Lecture Series Winter Term 2022/23: Course Requirements

Dear Students,

If you would like to receive credit points for our Lecture Series, the following scheme applies:

- Regular attendance will earn you 1 ECTS (not graded)
- Regular attendance plus 1 Essay for 1 of the sessions will earn you 2 ECTS (graded)
- Regular attendance plus 2 Essays for 2 of the sessions will earn you 3 ECTS (graded)

If you would like to pick up your certificate of course attendance, please contact us via: rolf.scheuermann@capas.uni-heidelberg.de.

On regular attendance: you can miss a maximum of two sessions only; at each session, you have to personally sign the attendance list.

On the Essay(s): you can choose a topic of your choice with respect to any of the lectures of the CAPAS Lecture Series of this semester. Keep in mind that an essay is not a summary, but an academic writing in which you explore a particular question or problem. If you need further information on essay writing, you may have a look at the following information:

- <https://www.student.unsw.edu.au/essay-writing-basics>
- https://www.psychologie.uni-heidelberg.de/ae/allg/lehre/Leitfaden_Essays.pdf .

For your convenience, you may find recordings of the individual session here: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXwg83rwDdAJVljhYMbS48Q>

Form specifications for your essay(s): Times New Roman, font size 12, 1,5 line spacing, 2 cm margin, 5 pages (content and bibliography not counted); Language: English or German. Please, note: the plagiarism detection software Turnitin Similarity may be used to detect possible plagiarism.

The deadline for essays is 31 March 2023. Please, submit your essay(s) via: rolf.scheuermann@capas.uni-heidelberg.de.